Tips for Choosing a Topic

- Whom do you see as your audience: people who share your interests? classmates? friends or family?

- Use books, magazines, encyclopedias and the Internet to find information about:

- A fascinating person
- An interesting place
- Or a new or interesting product

- What is your purpose in writing: to share your experiences? to inform? To entertain? To share one of your interests?

- Imagine you have been hired to write a newspaper column about your topic. What would you write about?
